

THE
SANTA FE
OPERA

The Santa Fe Opera Orchestra Library Apprentice reports to the Orchestra Librarian. He/she will work directly with the Chief Conductor, Guest Conductors, Orchestra Manager, orchestra players, music staff, and Music Production Services staff and apprentices.

Application deadline: March 1, 2023

Dates: June 8 – July 29 (Some off campus, pre-season work will be required starting in May.)

Qualifications should include:

- a bachelor degree in music or equivalent in experience
- a basic knowledge of foreign language terminology, transpositions, opera and symphonic repertoire
- experience in part marking, including bowings
- an ability to communicate effectively
- a strong attention to detail
- ability to multi-task while maintaining accuracy
- a familiarity of music copyright laws

Performs duties including, but not limited to:

- bowings, cuts and other markings using best performance practices
- creating and repairing parts
- page turn corrections
- editing and proofreading of parts
- transpositions or other inserts
- assisting in cataloging sets and scores
- attending all orchestra rehearsals
- completing the required tasks for performance duty as determined by the Orchestra Librarian
- other necessary tasks as required by the Orchestra Librarian or Orchestra Manager

Compensation:

- Weekly stipend
- Travel allowance
- Admission to dress rehearsals and performances with company card (subject to seating availability)

A car is helpful - the Opera is located 7 miles north of Santa Fe city center (no public transportation available).

Application: To apply, submit a resume to orchestralibrary@santafeopera.org