LA TRAVIATA

Giuseppe Verdi

Violetta is the belle of the ball at every party in Paris, until she falls in love with Alfredo. They run away from high society for a simple life in the country, when Alfredo's father asks Violetta to sacrifice her love to save the family's honor.

DON GIOVANNI

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Lecherous nobleman, Don Giovanni has had infamous exploits (he keeps a catalog). He kills the father of one of his victims and now, his continued debauchery will seal his fate. Who will exact revenge and make him pay the price for his misdeeds?

David struggles to reconcile spiritual humility with ambition. His desire for more wreaks havoc on his family, friendships and, perhaps, his own faith. His journey from preacher to Governor, like the lives of those closest to him, is shaped by the current affairs of the 1980s.

DER ROSENKAVALIER

Richard Strauss

In the decadent world of Vienna, a story of romantic entanglements unfolds between a youthful nobleman, his mature mistress, and a young woman engaged to be married to an older Baron. Who is to give in or give up their heart?

THE ELIXIR OF LOVE

Gaetano Donizetti

Nemorino, a not-so-clever mechanic, has fallen for Adina, a school teacher. He desires her attention, but doesn't feel worthy. Fortunately, he meets Dr. Dulcamara (most certainly a quack) who sells him a "magic elixir" that can make his dreams come true.
